NUMBER 1

DEATH.

Mrs. Margaret Tucker, After an Illness of Three Days, Succumbs to the Inevitable.

FUNERAL SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED

Last Monday morning, after returning from the homes of two neighbors, the subject of this writing was taken with a chill and also an attack of flux. She did not think, nor did the members of the family, that she was seriously afflicted, but in a few hours she commenced rapidly to weaken, and it was soon evident that she could not live, and at 11 o'clock Wednesday night, without a struggle, she crossed to the other side. She was perfectly rational until a few minutes before the end came.

The deceased was born and reared in Columbia, and had she lived until the 90th of next March, she would have been 79 years old. Her parents, H. G. and Eliza Atkins, preceded her to the grave many years ago.

She was twice married. Her first husband was Jas. R. Ewing, who was also a native of Adair, and her second husband was Alfred Tucker, of Perryville, Boyle county. A few years after her marriage to Mr. Ewing they removed to Lebanon and entered the hotel business, remaining there several years, and from Lebanon they removed to Campbellsville, where they also engaged in the hotel business, and where Mr. Ewing died. After his death she returned to her home in Columbia, and in a few years thereafter she met and was wedded to Mr. Alfred Tucker, becoming a resident of Perryville. After the death of her last husband she returned to Columbia where she remained almost steadfastly until the final dissolution.

While she lived to a good old age, honored and respected by all who knew her, she was young in disposition, and was perfectly happy when her home was full of young girls, and in all of their enjoyments she took a deep interest. She had no malice and was never heard to speak an unkind word of any individual.

Her death was a shock to the community, and coming so sudden, all was over before more than half the people of Columbia knew that she was ill.

She was a consecrated Christian and had been a member of the Methodist Church since her early girlhood. She was regular in her pew, only sickness and extreme bad weather preventing. She will be sadly missed, not only from the home, but by all neighbors.

The deceased leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ada Schelling, of Salt Lake, Utah, and Mrs. Kinzie Murrell, this place, the last named being Mrs. Tucker's daily associate since the death of Mr. Tucker. She also leaves two nephews and several nieces, all of whom were devoted.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The discourse was preached by her former pastor, Rev. J. S. Chandler, of Campbellsville, who paid a high tribute to her life and character. Rev. L. F. Piercy, the recently assigned pastor, assisted in the services. The building was full of sympathizing friends.

At the close of the church services the remains were conveyed to the city cemetery where they were deposited by the side of loved ones.

There were many beautiful white flowers, emblematic of the pure life lived by the deceased.

Hon. W. T. Lasley, of Logan county, made a good speech, at the court house, Monday night, in the interest of the Democratic party.

Bob Hood writes us from Buffalo Hart, Ill., stating that there was a severe snow storm on the 20th of October, but it did not continue long. He further says that every farmer is having his corn shucked, and that the men turn out 80 to 100 bushels per day. Some women shuck, and that the best female shucker in his county is the wife of Robert Dixon. She shucks 60 bushels per day.

Wednesday and Thursday, this week, a great change should be made on the Dug Hill.

Administrator's Notice.

All persons owing the estate of the late Dr. B. F. Taylor, by note or account, are hereby notified to call at my office and settle. The business of the estate must be closed in the next few months.

James Taylor, Administrator.

We have received a copy of the Hillsboro, Illinois, paper containing an account of the death of Alvin Sanders, who died in Montgomery county, Ill., October 19, 1916. He was a native of Adair county, Ky., and was 96 years, 9 months and 24 days old. His father was named John Sanders. Perhaps some of the Sanders of this county know something about him.

SKETCHES.

D. E. Hatcher.

We have been writing sketches of traveling men for two months and we are yet not through. This week we take up D. E. Hatcher, who is known to all the merchants in his territory and to the people generally as "Neighbor" Hatcher. He has been on the road for about forty years, traveling in different lines, but for shoes longer than any other branch of business. For some years he has been the representative of John J. Schulten & Co., a well-known shoe house of Louisville, and he has sold an immense lot of goods in this part of Kentucky. He lives at Glasgow, and his territory embraces twelve or fifteen counties. He is a very companionable gentleman, and after business hours he is an entertainer on any subject that might be advanced. His genial disposition has made him a host of friends, and he is popular with all the merchants he sells. He represents a house that handles the best brands of goods, hence he takes a delight in showing samples. Aside from the business he represents, he takes time to read the current events, and to-day there is not a better posted man on the political issues, now engaging the minds of the people of the United States, and furthermore, he keeps up with the doings in Europe.

The people of Columbia are always glad to see Mr. Hatcher, and he never lacks for company when at the hotel. We trust that his business may continue to grow, and that he will not run out of red cedar as long as he remains upon the road.

Do not fail to hear Hon. Elwood Hamilton discuss the issues, from a Democratic standpoint, at the court house Monday, November 6, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Come and See.

You may hear of many new things, yet if you never have attended chapel at Lindsey-Wilson school you missed it all. Something new each morning, something you never dreamed of. Yesterday, Oct. 25th we had a great surprise. Bro. Huffaker, county school superintendent came over and gave a most wonderful address. His talk helped and benefitted all. What was the most surprising was the newly formed quartette of the Lindsey band, consisting of P. G. Chandler, Lewis Jarvis, Noel Thomas and Capt. Schroer. Many hearts were filled with emotion while the sweet strains of "Near My God to Thee" rolled out, surely this band of young men ought to be encouraged, by frequent visits. They will soon be ready for a concert.

Spokes Wanted.

The Adair Spoke Company is now receiving hickory and White Oak spokes, same kind as heretofore and at same prices.

E. W. Wethington.

Wanted.

Two or three second hand Ford cars.

To-day, Wednesday, is the time set to begin work on the Dug Hill. Every body on the Stanford road and adjacent to it ought to show up in good faith. Not only the people in that vicinity but the people of Columbia ought to help make this piece of road. It means so much to allow it to fail. Bring a sharp ax, shovel or pick and in two days if enough men take up this work we will have a great improvement well under way.

The Basket Ball team from the Jamestown Graded School got badly left here last Friday night. The High School team, of this place, was in fine shape, defeating the visitors by a score of 59 to 8. A large audience witnessed the contest. The visiting club remained over to witness the foot ball game between the Lindsey-Wilson and the Springfield High School team, which terminated 32 to nothing in favor of the Lindsey-Wilson.

Ladies are invited to hear Gov. Black at the court house, next Saturday afternoon.

Sandusky Bros informs us that they are now building a Ford garage near their planing mill on the street connecting with the Stanford road and Campbellsville pike. It will be 40 by 80 feet and equipped in every particular to serve the public. A full and complete line of repairs for Ford machines will be kept in stock and service will be given day or night. They are agents for the Ford, believers in the Ford and directing their energies in its sale and equipments.

Hon. Elwood Hamilton, will address the voters of Adair county, at the court-house, in the interest of the Democratic party, at 1 o'clock, p. m., Monday, November 6. Turn out every body and hear him. He is a speaker of ability.

Ball Chief, recently purchased by C. D. Cheatham, will make the season of 1917 in Columbia. He is a good one, registered.

Bryant & Shively, the well-known opticians and jewelers of Campbellsville, have an advertisement in The News this week. This is a very reliable firm, handling only the best of goods. Trade from Adair and adjoining counties is solicited. They will have a magnificent display of Christmas goods in due time. Write or call and see them.

Rev. J. S. Chandler, of Campbellsville, who is one of the strongest ministers of the Louisville Conference, and who is a great favorite of the people of Columbia, where he preached for three years, filled the pulpit of the Methodist church here last Sunday forenoon. The building was crowded, and a most excellent discourse was delivered.

Mr. H. K. Pickett, of Sulphur City, Ark., writes: Enclosed find $1 to keep the News coming to my address. We learn of things through the medium of its columns that we would never know otherwise. I want to see old Kentucky roll up an overwhelming majority for Wilson, as we will in Arkansas.

J. B. Cave dug into a warf rat's nest last week. Besides the old one, he found six young ones, three blue and three white. He had two of the white ones on exhibition in Columbia.

The News will not be published next week until Wednesday. By holding the paper back a day we will be enabled to give the result of the national election.

Mr. John Richard Keltner, a prominent citizen of the Keltner section, died very suddenly on the 26th ult.

Painful Accident.

The people of Columbia were sorry to hear of an accident which befell Mr. J. T. Goodman, at his home, Rowena, Russell county. He was in the second story of his barn, and a plank gave way and he fell to the lower floor. One of his collar bones were broken and he was otherwise badly bruised. His son, Raymond, who is in the Lindsey-Wilson, was called home. It is hoped that Mr. Goodman will not be long in recovering.

Before beginning he announced that there was a balance of ten thousand dollars due on the building, the entire cost being about forty thousand. The balance was quickly contributed. ### Foot Ball.

A large crowd saw a very hard contested game of foot ball here Saturday when Springfield lined up against Lindsey-Wilson. The Lindsey boys fought hard from the first and finally piled up 32 points to their opponents 0. Will Cundiff led in gaining ground for the local boys while Ed Hill was strong on the defensive. The game was more interesting than usual because many people thought Springfield would win on account of the comparative scores each team had made against Bloomfield.

From Oklahoma.

Bartlesville, Oct. 20, '16.
Mr. C. S. Harris:
I am enclosing draft for $5.00, according to statement. Of course I could not do without the News. While there is often the sad mortuary notice—the gathering to their fathers of many of my old friends; it also brings cherry reports of plenty and happiness among you, which, after all, is the main thing.

I trust that there will be no let up until you secure the R. R. With your almost invariable good seasons and enterprising farmers—with better shipping facilities your output could soon be double or tripled. Being in a veritable Sahara I can better appreciate what you are enjoying and could do under proper pressure in an agricultural way.

Truly,
M. F. Dudley.
Come in and hear Gov. Jas. D. Black at the court house next Saturday at 1 o'clock.
